

Importer fined $3,500 for illegal import of fresh vegetables

Pang Hoi, the licensee of Pang Hoi Vegetables and Fruits Traders, was fined $3,500 by the Court today for illegally importing fresh vegetables for sale.

2 In August 2020, officers from the Singapore Food Agency (SFA) detected 250kg of undeclared fresh vegetables in the consignments imported from Malaysia by the importer. All the illegal consignments were seized.

3 In Singapore, food imports must meet SFA's requirements. Food can only be imported by licensed importers, and every consignment must be declared and accompanied with a valid import permit. Illegally imported vegetables are of unknown sources and can pose a food safety risk (e.g. if unregulated or high level of pesticides are used). The long-term ingestion of excessive pesticide residues through the consumption of vegetables that have been subjected to pesticide abuse could lead to adverse health effects.

4 Offenders who illegally import fresh fruits and vegetables shall be liable on conviction to a maximum fine of $10,000 and/or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.
