

No detection of cocaine in Red Bull Energy Drink

Following alerts on detection of traces of cocaine in Red Bull energy drink imported from Austria, AVA has taken samples of various types of Red Bull energy drinks imported from Thailand, Vietnam, Austria and Malaysia, and sold in Singapore for laboratory analysis.

2 Tests conducted at the Health Sciences Authority laboratories for Food Safety and Illicit Drugs & Analytical Toxicology did not detect any presence of cocaine in all samples tested.

Issued by Agri-Food & Veterinary Authority
On 5 June 2009

MEDIA RELEASE